Pruitt Lines

My father was Edward Daniel Pruitt of Tulsa and his parents were Milo Lincoln Pruitt and Eillen Vaughn. My grandparents meet in Arkansas but later moved to Tulsa. They had 10 children with my father being the eldest. This is really all the information I have for this side of the Pruitt's.

While I was researching my grandfathers McPherson side. He has a Mary E. Pruitt who married Columbus C Hopkins. I can't find much information on her. This is all I can find..

Columbus Christopher Hopkins born abt 1832 married Mary E Pruitt 11/28/1849 in Morgan Co KY. Children Moses Sanford Hopkins 8/31/1851, James E ... See MoreHopkins 4/22/1854, Zerrildice Hopkins 9/19/1856, Louisa Hopkins 12/22/1858, William Hopkins 9/26/1862. This family lived in Pike CO KY.

So I guess this means I am a double Pruitt somewhere

Hi Stephanie... double Pruitt is double goodness, we should all be so lucky :-)

My tree does not branch very far westward but others on the site do, I hope they are able to make a connection for you.

Welcome Stephanie, You are the first double Pruitt I have come across. If your family is like most Pruitts, I am sure they spelled their name various ways over the last two hundred years.

I hope its possible that you can get some of your father's line to do a DNA test in the future to determine which Pruitt line they came from.

Stephanie: I am from Tulsa and was born here. Was your father born in Tulsa or Arkansas? What was the time frame he lived in Tulsa? At the time I was born (1936) most of the Pruitt's in Tulsa were my grandparents, aunts and uncles. Where in Arkansas was your dad's parents from? My grandparents were from Scott Co., Ark..

My Father was born in Tulsa 1941. My grandparents were both born in Newton Co. Ark. both around 1918. I have found my Great grandparents Daniel and Eva Pruitt. My aunts don't know a lot about this side of the family because their grandparents were already passed. Unfortunately they say my father knew almost everything.

Other information

There is a Pruitt house not far from the Buffalo River and highway 7 in Newton Co.. They have a website and picture of the house. The proprietor can be contacted on the internet. The house is available for overnight guest etc. There is a Pruitt cemetery somewhere in that area also.

You can view the census for 1900 and 1910, 1890 is probably not available, to see if they have any information that will be helpful. Go to a local Genealogy Library or subscribe to Ancestry.com

Thank you Elbert!

I don't notice so far a match. The Pruitt spelling is staying the same through the generations I have found so far. I have hit wall though.

Milo Pruitt and Eilene Vaughn (grand daughter of Joe Vaughn aka Frank James)

1889 Daniel Wesley Pruitt and Eva L. Pruitt - children Milo, Arvie, Jewel, Velma, Lewis, and Billigene

1866- 1933 Ransom (Ranson) and Rhoda Ann Berry - children Daniel Wesley, Alfie Vemetie, William Allen, Amanda Elizabeth, Harve Edgar, Mauda, Charlie Edward, Nelli May, Ida (Ivy) Edna

Then we move to John D Pruitt born Indiana Nov. 18, 1880 but moved to Jasper township, Newton County, Ark.

John Daniel Pruitt and Vemetie Jane Moss (Born in Tenn)- children Ransom and Grant

I found that John was in Civil War. But can't find parents yet. Then Grant others are saying he is Ulysses S Grant Pruitt. Some General I can only find 2 real proof on census that says Grant 1800 and 1900. There is Census for both General and Ulysses and same birth year plus WWI on the 2 names. I just can't find Grant. So here I am stuck.

I will say I am so shocked that Pruitt has stayed the exact same this far.

Thank you so much! My kids and I are having fun and learning a lot.
