Welcome Mary !

Mary, welcome to the group. I hope you will find this group useful and helpful. Please feel free to post any discussion item you would like. I hope you will tell us something about your family which you are reseaching. Its possible someone here will be able to answer your questions

Mary, I hope you will consider having someone in your Pruitt family do the DNA test to see which of our Pruitt Family lines your family will fall in. Please see our DNA Comparison Section for our Pruitt Famly groups.

Thank y ou for the welcome and invite to the group. I have enjoyed viewing all the Pruitt/Pruett/Prewitt history that is recorded in the group and finding family is my goal.

Allow me to start that I am the daughter of Herbert Spencer Pruitt and Sarah Margaret Akers Pruitt, they both come to WV via Pike and Johnson Counties in Kentucky. My paternal grandparents were Frank William Pruitt (1903 - 1978) and Sarah Eliz abeth Harris (1905 - 1985) My great grandparents were William Frank Pruitt (1847- 1910) and Mary Jane Bridgeman (1879-1936) who came from Wilkes County North Carolina.

My great great grandparents also from Wilkes County North Carolina were Jeremiah Pruitt (1821-1891) and Rebecca Spicer (1822-1902). The geneology that our family has traced goes back to the 1500's and England including many others that I would be more than happy to share.

The relation between our lineage and Uriah Pruitt (1699 - 1746) is questionalbe at best, but like with any research...this is a work in progress. I will take into consideration the DNA testing as soon as this hectic life of mine slows down a little.

I'm very excited for any new connections or information and hope to make new friendships and family lines.

Yay, another cousin! :-)

It is great to have you aboard. This is an excellent and very helpful group, so please ask away if you have any questions.
