Maryland Pruitts

Looking for members that their Pruitts were in Maryland in the 1700's and of what parts they were tied to? Also would like to know something on their lines to see the interplay with what other families they married into and among and which lines of Pruitts they were.

See my Web site: <http://pruiett-parker.com/> for Samuel Pruitt who lived in Prince George's/Frederick Co. (later Montgomery Co.), Maryland. He didn't move, the county boundaries changed over time.

Hi Bill,

I have a couple of questions - Can you join this web-site if you are not an Ancestry member? If my tree is already on Ancestry, am I supposed to upload it again, here?

Thanks,
Karen

Great questions, Karen. People can join this site without being an Ancestry member. Also, you should post the link to your Ancestry family tree under our Family Trees tab in order to let folks know where to find it. You don't have to re-post the Family Tree here, just the link to the tree. That way, I believe you will still control access to your tree just as you can now. Once you post your link here, I can post the link to the appropriate Family Group on our sister site at <http://dna.pruitt.net/>. That way, people who are interested in our line, Family Group F - descendants of Samuel Pruitt, will know your tree is related to Samuel and his descendants.

Okay - It's posted - Thanks Bill!
