Hello!

I recently found out about this group and joined it. My name is Rhonda Pruitt Stucker. My Pruitt line is from Virginia, primarily Pittsylvania County. My dad, grandfather and great-grandfather were all born in Danville, VA. My great-grandparents, grandfather and many of my grandfather's siblings are buried in Leemont Cemetery in Danville.

As far as I know, my Pruitt line goes:

Asa Pruitt & Tabitha Ferguson --> Thomas Stuart Pruitt & Icyphenia Ford --> John Edward Pruitt & Anna Gosney --> Claude Coke Pruitt Sr. & Levona Martin --> Ralph Edward Pruitt Sr. & Ella Louise Stone --> Rhonda Pruitt Stucker.

I don't know anymore than that, and my information on Asa and Tabitha are very sketchy, and I don't have much more on Thomas & Icyphenia (2nd wife -- first wife was named Susan).

I do have a picture of John Edward Pruitt that my grandmother (Levona) gave me when I was 17. And, if anyone is interested, I have pictures of many Pruitt headstones that my dad and stepmother took a several years ago at Leemont Cemetery.

Do I have any Pruitt "cousins" here?

Maybe you can help me find my missing Pruitt. My husband's grandfather was supposed to be from Danville, he died the end of 1899 or first of 1900 in a work related accident, he worked for the railroad. He left a wife Ida Carlisle Pruitt and an infant son Arnold William Pruitt (who may have been born after he died), they moved to Alabama to her parents home (I have them on the 1900 census dated in June). They either never talked about him or my husband's father never told him about his grandfather, so I don't even have a first name, just some vague stories. Any help or ideas will be appreciated.

Rhonda, I think William Pruiett and you are fourth cousins.

Rhonda, you seem to really have your family back to your great grandfather. I am seeing more Pruitts who have roots in Pittsylvania County lately. I hope you have someone in your line who can take the DNA test. It would be interesting to see where they would fall.

I have wondered if Daniel Pruitt who moved to Halifax county in 1755 from Caroline could have been the common ancestor to the Halifax-Pittsylvania Pruitts..

Hi, Rhonda. Good to hear from you again. I'm no closer to making a direct connection between Asa Prewitt (b. around 1786) and John, Jr. and John, Sr. Also, still looking for information on Icyphenia Ford's parents.
