WEDNESDAY FEB. 2, 1898.

The C. & W. C. R. R.

It is generally understood that a change in the operation of the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway will be made within the next few days.

It will not be many more days now before the management of the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway will change hands. It was rumored in the city yesterday that the officials of the Coast Line would arrive here yesterday, but in all probability they will not be here until Monday.

Holland's Store.

Our neighborhood has been exceedingly quiet since the holidays. Everybody is busily engaged on the farm. There has perhaps been more ploughing done than in any previous January for many years.

A tenant house on Mr. Robt. Cunningham's place, occupied by John Davenport, colored, was burned one day last week.

Our health, with few exceptions, is good.

The smallpox scare has subsided. More anon. BURKE.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Othella O'Neal, wife of Mr. M. J. O'Neal, after suffering eight days, calmly fell on sleep to await the resurrection of the faithful. Mrs. O'Neal was born Sept. 15th, 1861, in Anderson County, S. C., and died Jan. 25th, 1898. She changed her name from Barriss to O'Neal on becoming the wife of Mr. M. J. O'Neal, with whom she lived happily until her death. Ten children—six girls and four boys—survive her with a husband and many loved ones and friends, who deeply mourn her departure.

At Hymen's Altar.

On Wednesday, the 26th ult., the lovely home of Mr. Thos. R. Simpson, six miles above Anderson, was the scene of one of the greatest social events ever celebrated in the community, the marriage of Miss Mary Agnes Simpson to Mr. Walter L. Pruitt. Long before the appointed hour the guests began to arrive and were received by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. R. Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. G. McWhorter.

Promptly at 7:30 o'clock the strains of a beautiful wedding march pealed forth from the organ under the talented organist, Miss Mattie Eikew. First came Miss Myrtle McWhorter, beautifully attired in pink cashmere with lace and pearl trimmings, with Mr. Parker Robinson, next came the maid of honor, Miss Nina Pruitt, attired in a beautiful costume of cream brocade silk trimmed with ribbons and pearl ornaments with the "best man," Mr. Thos. R. Simpson, Jr. Then came the bride attired in a magnificent white satin gown that was a triumph of art with its lovely silk lace and ribbon trimmings and bride's roses. She carried in her hand a lovely bouquet of white hyacinths and Mt. Vernon ferns.

The available space in the hall and the entire area of the stairway was filled with handsome and dainty gifts from a hundred and fifty or more guests. At about one o'clock a. m. the guests departed to their respective quarters happy and feeling better for having attended the loveliest and brightest wedding that has occurred in the County for many moons. Corner Creek Items.

We began to think that we were going to have a big snow Sunday, but it was only a light one.

Miss May Pinson, a beautiful and attractive young lady from near Greenwood, S. C., is visiting her friends, the Misses Bigby. Miss Lou Gassaway, who is teaching the McAdams school, we are glad to note is moving things right along. She has 50 pupils on the roll.

The patrons of the Barker's Creek School have recently erected a neat and commodious school house, and have attached a bell to it. The school opened last Monday, the 24th, with Miss Annie Bolt as teacher. We think the patrons have made a wise selection in securing the services of Miss Bolt, as she is an experienced teacher, and no doubt will give entire satisfaction to all.

Mr. J. C. Wilson, of Neva, was in our midst one night last week. Calvin is a rising and progressive young farmer, and is bound to make a success in life. Come again, we are always glad to see you around in our midst.

Messrs. Sloan McGee and Brown Gassaway spent last Saturday and Sunday with some of the young people of Antreville.

Mr. L. A. Shirley has purchased a farm bell and has it up. We suppose when Lon pulls his cord his hands know to hustle.

Wheat and oats are looking fine now. Several have nice fields, but Mr. J. N. Shirley has the finest field of wheat that this writer has seen anywhere.

Hugh Howard, from near Greenwood, has been visiting relatives in our section the past week.

Hon. Joshua W. Ashley sold his entire crop of cotton last Friday, amounting to 175 bales, to parties in Columbia at 5 cents a pound. Mr. Ashley is one of our energetic farmers, running about 25 plows and makes a large amount of cotton and plenty of corn to do him.

Mrs. Mary Shirley, accompanied by Lella Gassaway, attended the Union Meeting at Dorchester Saturday and Sunday.

To-day (Monday) is the last day of January, 1898 is rolling right along. One month has done gone. It will just be a short while and another Christmas will be here. Time waits on no one.

The farmers of this section have done a great deal of farm work for this time of the year on account of the fine weather that we have been having, but we are expecting some bad weather before another month passes.

The health of our community, we are glad to say, is very good at this writing. With best wishes for the INTELLIGENCER, I remain as ever your correspondent. TYNO.

There are about as many Crescents in daily use in Anderson County as there is of all the other different makes of bicycles combined, and it is the hearty endorsement of this army of riders that renders the sale of this popular wheel such an easy matter for Sullivan Hardware Co.

WANTED—Salesmen to sell our oils and greases to the manufacturers in Anderson and vicinity. Permanent position for right man. The Canfield Oil Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

Continued and increasing popularity is the greatest evidence of the merit of any bicycle. Eighty thousand Crescents were made and sold during the year 1897.

A big lot of nursery trees for sale cheap. See P. E. Clinkscales.

Boleman News.

We have had a remarkably fine spell of weather since Christmas and we farmers have been making good use of it breaking land and sowing oats, of which a large crop will be sown this spring if the weather continues good.

There will not be as much cotton planted in the Fork this year as was last by at least 15 or 20 per cent, which we think is the right step in the right direction.

Wheat and oats are looking fine, and if nothing happens to them we will reap a fine harvest this summer.

We heard a gentleman remark in our presence not long since that he had traveled over the greater portion of Oconee, Pickens, Greenville, Abbeville, Laurens and Anderson Counties in this State, also a number of Counties in Georgia. He said he was never at any loss to know when he was in Anderson County, from the fact that the public roads in Anderson were in so much better condition that he could tell as soon as he entered Anderson County. No doubt we have better roads in Anderson than any other County in the South, which we should be proud of, but nevertheless we hear some people continually complaining about the condition of public roads and even some grumbling about the little mite they have to pay to help keep up the public roads.

Misses Pauline and Myrtle Barton, of near Boleman, have gone to Fair Play to attend the High School at that place.

The school at Tugaloo is in a flourishing condition. Miss Maude Cromer, the teacher, has enrolled sixty scholars. She should have assistance.

A dwelling house on the plantation of Mr. Edrew Cromer was burned last Sunday night. The house was occupied by Mr. P. F. Farmer. He and his family were in bed asleep and did not discover that the house was on fire until it was almost burned down. They were unable to save but very few of their things.

A negro, who is a stranger in this section, was passing by Mr. James Shaw's last Saturday evening and crossed over into his pasture, pulled out his pistol and shot one of his cows, for what cause no one knows. It is thought the cow will die. Mr. Shaw went to Magistrate W. F. M. Fant and got a warrant, which was placed in the hands of Constable R. S. Fant, who traced him as far as Fair Play, and there lost trace of him. He should be caught, if possible, and given a term in the chain gang.

The health of this community never was better than at present. We do not know of a single case of sickness except a few old chronic cases. SCRIBBLER.

The Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer remarks: "It is strange how a man can suddenly disappear from the face of the earth, in these days of the telegraph, fast railway trains and skilled detectives, remarked a citizen to a reporter last night. The case of Will Meyers, for instance, Meyers broke out of the Fulton County jail in Atlanta several years ago in broad day time, and disappeared as mysteriously as if the earth had suddenly opened and swallowed him. He was the murderer of Forrest Crowley, and the big rewards offered set half the detectives in the country to work to catch him. They have never found him. The Columbus police department has long been puzzled over a mysterious disappearance. In the winter of 1869 about 9 o'clock at night, Alonzo Berry cut his wife's throat. The crime took place on Tenth street, near Front. The woman died, and Alonzo Berry disappeared. He has never been seen or heard of by the officers since that night."

An exchange says that spectacles have been patented for horses, and are now being used with great success. Their object is not so much to magnify objects as to make the ground in front of the horse appear nearer to his head than it really is. The result is continual high stepping, which, after a while, becomes natural, and gives to the horse an aristocratic gait which he will always retain.

Sullivan Hardware Co. have some great bargains to offer in a few '97 Crescents, just received. Only a few on hand, so don't hesitate too long before securing one of these excellent wheels.

The great "Nimrod" Axe, after six years trial, still stands on top. Sullivan Hardware Co. has the exclusive sale of these axes in South Carolina. Remember that Mr. J. A. Elliott is still with Brock Bros, so when you want a first class job of plumbing done, call on him. He is the only experienced plumber in the city.

Syracuse Plows made to gain and sustain the confidence of the public. They turn where others have failed. Every one we sell stays sold and is the means of us selling others. Yours, &c. Brock Bros.

An ancient Greek philosopher once said: Give me a lever and a place on which to rest it and I will move the world. But an old Anderson farmer said if you want to move the earth with ease, use one of Brock Bros' Syracuse plows.

Listen! Why is it the Oliver Chilled Plows, sold under an absolute guarantee by Sullivan Hardware Co., go and stay every time. Simply because they fill the bill perfectly.

Yours for business,

OSBORNE & CLINKSCALES.

STRICTLY BUSINESS!

THAT those who are so kind as to give me their patronage may understand just how I propose to conduct my business I write this card to explain. I have no objection to placing any number of people on my books on the weekly or monthly system of settlement, but under no circumstances will I run my customer longer than the time agreed upon to settle, viz. weekly or monthly. The margin on my business is too close to admit of any loose manner of dealing with any one. My motto is to give every patron just what they want, or as near to it as possible, and I request that those who patronize me call for what they want, and if I can't give it to them will give the next best thing to it at prices accordingly; and if neither the price nor quality suit, it can be returned at my expense and nothing more will be said or thought of it.

It has been the custom of all markets heretofore to give Hotels and Boarding Houses their choice meats at reduced prices, and letting the general run of customers have just such meats as they could get. I have made a change, so far as my Market is concerned, I will charge all alike. My best cuts of meats are strictly 10c. per pound to anybody, and other than choice will be sold as cheap as live and to live with permit I am making no fight on Hotels or Boarding Houses, for it is their privilege to buy as cheap as they can and I don't blame them to do so.

I have placed a Money Weight Scale in my Market that gives the exact money value of the different priced meats, and if I cut off a Steak or Roast that is worth 8c. I charge for it; if it is worth 11c. I charge 11c. for it, &c. So if you notice 9c. charged on your bill you have got the worth; if you find 11c. charged you have gotten 11c. worth. I neither give an odd cent or take it. Make the price right on the Money Weight Scale to begin, and charge just exactly what the indicator shows.

Believing that my friends and patrons have known me long enough to know that I have no desire to do other than an honorable business, and that in so doing I will reap a large share of their patronage, assuring them that I will keep nothing but good stock, and will give each and every one my painstaking care to see each order has special attention.

Respectfully,

F. M. BUTLER, Successor to Butler & Lyeth.

P. S.—I keep a full line of Groceries, Canned Goods, Cured Meats of all kinds, bulk, Sliced and Tins. Also, Chickens, Eggs and Fresh Vegetables. F. M. B.

OUR SHOES MUST GO!

WE'VE got too much money invested in Shoes, and it is our principle to rush off Goods that we are overstocked on, even if we have to do so at a sacrifice. Remember, this is no Cost Sale, but for the next thirty days, commencing Wednesday, January 13th, we will sell any Shoe in our Store for less money than the same Shoe can be bought in South Carolina, and place behind our offer a FIFTY DOLLAR GUARANTEE. Some people can offer to sell at Cost but don't do it; or if they do, it is not strange that they have to sell out at Cost if their "Cost" is as high as the price they claim is "Cost." We buy our Shoes Cheap, and will sell them cheaper.

Nor do we propose to be second to any Firm in—
