MISSISSIPPI

Territory - 1798

State - 1817

The first attempt to found a colony was made in 1699 by Pierre Lemoyne, who brought 200 immigrants from France. They established colonies on the Gulf Coast at Old Biloxi in 1699, and on the Mississippi River at Natchez in 1716. The entire Mississippi Valley was called Louisiana.

In 1763, France ceded the territory east of the Mississippi River, except New Orleans, to Great Britain under the peace settlement that ended the French and Indian War. Britain also received Florida from Spain, and divided the entire area into East Florida and West Florida.

When the thirteen Colonies revolted in 1776, the Natchez District remained loyal to the Crown, and a number of Tories of the seaboard colonies moved their families to the district. In covered wagons, on horseback or canoe, the trek was started following Indian paths, stage coach routes, military and post roads. A great number crossed the Savannah River at Augusta or Ross's Landing, Georgia. The Georgia State Road was used by many, who went through the northwest corner of Georgia into North Carolina and then into Tennessee. The Natchez Trace, or Chickasaw Road, was an old Indian path, the southern portion extending from Nashville, TN to Natchez, MS, a distance of some 500 miles.

Between 1779 and 1781, Spain asserted her authority and took over the government of the Natchez District.

Beasley Pruett (a Tory in South Carolina) was in Natchez District as early as 1783, and received a Spanish Land Grant in 1789. By 1798, pro-American sentiment had overthrown the rule of Spain and the Mississippi Territory was created by an Act of Congress.

The Louisiana Purchase in 1803 opened the Mississippi River and brought about a land boom in the Mississippi Territory. Thousands of settlers came from the eastern and northern states to claim the new lands. Petitions for statehood soon began and the State of Mississippi was created in 1817. The eastern half of the Territory was cut off to create the Alabama Territory.

By 1820, the land ceded by the Choctaw Indians was divided into many counties and rapidly settled. Dunbar Rowland, in his history of Mississippi, makes reference to some old South Carolina counties being almost depopulated by the rush to the new territory.

Rufus K. Prewitt, M.D., physician, surgeon and druggist, at Ackerman, MS, Choctaw County, has there been actively engaged in the practice of his profession for the past score of years and is a citizen of prominence and influence. He was born in the town of French Camp, that county, Feb. 13, 1844, being the son of John and Elizabeth (Cochran) Prewitt, the former a native of South Carolina and the latter of Georgia, while both passed the closing years of their lives in MS, of which state they were sterling pioneers, the father having here followed agricultural pursuits for many years. The parents came to Choctaw County in 1834, being among the first settlers, and the father was one of the commissioners who assisted in laying off the county into townships.

Dr. Prewitt attended the schools of French Camp and Vaiden, MS in his youth, and made good use of the opportunities thus afforded him, while he completed his medical studies in the Louisville Medical College, in the metropolis of Kentucky, in which institution he was graduated with the degree of Doctor of Medicine in 1882, having previously been in practice for thirteen years after taking one course of lectures.

His intrinsic loyalty to the South and its constitutional rights was manifested in no uncertain way when the Civil War was inaugurated. He enlisted in the defense of the Confederacy, becoming a member of Company A, 4th Mississippi Infantry, in which he was promoted to the office of second Lieutenant, while he continued in the ranks of the boys in gray until the close of the war. Among the principal engagements in which he was a participant were the battles of Fort Donelson, Chickasaw Bayou, Grand Gulf and Vicksburg, the Georgia and Tennessee campaigns, and the battle at Blakely, Alabama. In 1861, at the battle of Fort Donelson, he was taken prisoner, but was soon afterward exchanged, and with his command, he surrendered after the Memorable siege and capitulation of Vicksburg, in 1863.

Dr. Prewitt began the practice of his profession in Whitefield, (now Sturgis) Oktibbeha Co., MS in 1869. Four years later he removed to Webster, Winston County, where he was successfully engaged in the work of his profession for a period of eleven years, at the expiration of which he came to Ackerman in 1884, and has been engaged in general practice there, having built up a large and representative business and commanding the high regard of the people of that section.

He is a Democrat in his political proclivities, but, during the years when the Populist Party stood representative of the principles and policies which met his approval, he gave to the same his unqualified support and endorsement, being one of the leaders of the party in Mississippi.

For eight years he was publisher and editor of the Phagocite, a weekly paper issued in the interest of the Populist Party, and in 1895 he was elected to the legislature on the party ticket, serving until 1899. In 1896 he was the party nominee for congress from his district, and, upon completion of his term in the legislature, he was given still further evidence of the confidence and appreciation of the party leaders in that he became the nominee for the governor of the State. He made spirited and effective canvasses on each of these occasions, but met the defeat which attended the party ticket in general throughout the State.

Dr. Prewitt is President of the Choctaw County Medical Association and is an ex-member of the Board of Health of Choctaw County. He is local surgeon for the Mobile, Jackson and Kansas City Railroad. In connection with his practice, he owns and conducts a finely equipped drug store. He owns the largest orchard in the State, having over 6,000 trees planted on forty acres of land, the fruit consisting of apples and peaches, mostly, the latter.

In a fraternal way, he is identified with the Masonic Order, Knights and Ladies of Honor, and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. On November 17, 1869, Dr. Prewitt married Mrs. Elizabeth Easley, dau. of John and Margaret (Robinson) Crow of Choctaw Co., and they have been the parents of seven children, all of whom died in childhood except Thomas, Rufus and John, the latter of whom was killed on a railroad at Birmingham, Alabama in 1893, at the age of twenty-two, leaving one son Perkins Prewitt. Rufus was a bookkeeper at Ackerman and died in 1900, aged twenty-three (Mississippi History Vol. III, Atlanta, GA 1907).

1952, Oct. 30 - ALICE (Cain) PREWITT died at Ackerman, Mississippi. She was born in Franklin Co., MS on June 27, 1874; and was the second wife of Rufus King Prewitt.

MONROE CO. MS.

Monroe Co. was formed in 1821 from Chickasaw Cession 1821
C.S. Aberdeen, MS

The first Prewetts came to Monroe County and settled about 9 miles north and east of Aberdeen, at a Prewett village named Gohoer.

"Among the earliest settlers here were the four Prewitt brothers, Abner, Dyer, Kirk and Mark."
(Recollections of Mississippi, Reuben Davis, 1891, p. 274).

MONROE CO. MS.

The Prewett family was one of the largest and most powerful in the county, but there are few descendants there now. They were prominent in the Baptist Church and Lemuel and several others were preachers. When they moved from Gohoer to Aberdeen, the church held services in the home of Abner C. Prewett for several years. Later Abner C. Prewett and others were active in obtaining land and building the church.

Land purchases in Monroe County were not recorded until 1824, several years after the county was formed. Lemuel Prewett and his sons, Abner, Larkin, Elisha Dyer, Kirk and Mark had become the largest land owners and the most extensive farm operators who resided on the east side of the Tombigbee River. Together they owned more than 5000 acres and the 1830 Census lists them as the owners of 108 slaves. They remained on their homesteads and plantations until about 1845, when they began moving west of the Tombigbee River to the new town of Aberdeen.

1821 - LEMUEL PREWETT moved to Monroe County from Maury Co., Tennessee.

1821, July 11 - ABNER PREWETT and wife Nancy, sold land to Lemuel S. Bowers for $639 (Bk 2, p. 149).

1821, Oct. 23 - LEMUEL PREWETT of Monroe Co., MS, sold 200 acres in Maury Co., TN to ABNER PREWETT of Monroe Co., MS for $1000. South boundary line, James Kendrick's survey, John Kirk's south boundary line, Tomlinson's corner, KIRK PREWETT's corner, Kirk Prewett's line. Witnessed by: Allen Hill and ELISHA D. PREWETT; rec. July 6, 1822 (Maury Co., TN Bk J, p. 511).

1821, Oct. 23 - LEMUEL PREWETT of Monroe Co., MS, sold 100 acres on Fountain Creek, Maury Co., TN to KIRK PREWETT of Maury Co., TN for $500. Witnessed by: Allen Hill and ELISHA D. PREWETT; rec. July 6, 1822 (Maury Co., TN Bk J, p. 513).

1822, Sept. 22 - PHOEBIE PREWETT m. Daniel Burnett. She was born in Maury Co., TN in 1806 to Lemuel Prewett and Catherine Brantley.

1822 - LARKIN PREWETT moved to Monroe County from Maury Co., TN, and established his homestead on 80 acres, approximately 3 miles SE of the site of the town of Cotton Gin Port and 1 1/2 miles south of the present city of Amory.

1823, Jan. 23 - RHODA PREWETT born to Kirk Prewett and Elizabeth Harris.

1823, June 12 - LARKIN PREWETT born to Abner Prewett and Nancy McGee.

1824, April 13 - Brice M. Garner, Daniel Burnett, ABNER PREWETT, Daniel W. Ragsdale, William H. Ragsdale, William Wall, John Kirk and Benjamin Harris bought 107 1/2 acres upon which the settlement of Cotton Gin Port was established. They authorized the laying out of lots and organized the "Cotton Gin Land Company on Tombecky." The treaty of Pontotoc, which the

MONROE CO. MS.

Chickasaw Tribe of Indians concluded with the U.S. in 1832-34, and the subsequent founding of the town of Aberdeen in 1835-36, put an end to the growth and development of the town of Cotton Gin Port.

1825 - MARY ELIZABETH PREWETT born to Larkin Prewett and Mary T. Love.

1825, Aug. 2 - FIELDING H. PREWETT born to Abner Prewett and Nancy McGee.

1825, Sept. 20 - A conveyance in trust stated John Miller and wife, Polly Miller, of Maury Co., TN conveyed several negro slaves to ABNER PREWETT, SR. in trust for the use and benefit of ELISHA D.
