ARKANSAS

Territory - 1819

State - 1836

Following the Louisiana Purchase in 1803, Arkansas was opened to settlement with land at very low prices. As a result, thousands of settlers from the midwest and southeast areas of the United States came to Arkansas. Many of the early settlers came from Kentucky and Tennessee. The formation of the Missouri Territory in 1812 included Arkansas. Arkansas County was formed the following year.

Additional settlers came to claim bounty land for service in the War of 1812 and to grow cotton. Many of these settlers came from Virginia and the Carolinas through Tennessee, Mississippi and Missouri.

Arkansas Territory was formed in 1819, when Missouri applied for statehood. The Arkansas Territory included present day Oklahoma until 1836, when Arkansas became a state.
